NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2024

Nature of operations

The Spark of Hope Foundation (the “organization”) is a not-for-profit charitable organization established under the laws of the Government of Canada. The purpose of the organization is to fund student tuition and expenses for the underprivileged. The organization receives monetary and in-kind contributions from various donors and access to scholarship funding from various universities.

Due to the organization's not-for-profit status, the organization is exempt from income taxes.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. The significant accounting policies are detailed as follows:

Contributed services

Volunteers contribute numerous hours to the organization in carrying out certain aspects of its service delivery activities. The fair value of these contributed services is not readily determinable and, as such, they are not reflected in the financial statements.

Revenue recognition

The organization follows the deferral method of accounting for donations, grants and contributions. Restricted contributions are recognized as deferred contributions when received or receivable and recognized as revenue when the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates. On an ongoing basis, management reviews its estimates, and, as adjustments become necessary, they are reported in the statement of operations in the period in which they become known.

Financial instruments

The organization initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value. The organization subsequently measures all its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost.

2. Financial instruments

The significant financial risks to which the organization is exposed to are as follows:

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk the organization may not be able to meet its obligations. The organization is exposed to this risk mainly in respect of its accounts payable and accrued liabilities. The organization expects to meet these obligations as they come due by generating sufficient cash flow from operations.

Credit risk

The organization does not consider credit risks on its accounts receivable to be significant.

3. Related party transactions

During the year, the organization received contributions from a family member of one of the organization's officers. The total contributions received during the year were $39,600 (2023 - $40,247)

These transactions are in the normal course of operations and are measured at their exchange amount, which is the amount of consideration established and agreed to by the related parties.
